Do not say gold, ma-dame, answered the tart musician; it was despicable tinsel. At one of these Westminster Abbey performances a striking coincidence occurred. The morning had been threatening a storm; but instantly the grand chorus Let there be light, and light was over all commenced, the sun burst forth and gilded every dark nook of the solemn old Abbey with a flood of splendor. On another occasion, while a chorus descriptive of a storm was being sung, a hurricane burst over the Abbey, and the fierce rattling of hailstones, accompanied by peals of thunder, kept time to the grand music of Handel. During the performance of the chorus The Lord God Omnipotent Reigneth, the audience was so moved that King, Queen, royal family, and all present, rose by a common impulse to their feet.
