TAP Publishing UK, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is Jam-packed with over 180 works in the Light Verse genre. It contains poems that are wry, witty, comical, crude, rude, vulgar and just plain silly. Covering diverse subject matter including: education, money, food, nature, life and death, all designed to amuse and stimulate your laughing muscles. Whether you re a fan of alliteration, rhyming couplets, limericks, soliloquy, heroic ballads or parody, they re all here in all their jolly, frivolous glory. In short - there s something in this book for all tastes. Not since 1850 has a book been solely dedicated to anonymous poetry. Some of the highlights include poems about: A raucous tale of a ladies farting contest An explanation of why dogs need to sniff each others bums A contender for the invention of txt spk. Written decades before the mobile phone was invented. There are also some slightly more highbrow parodies of Edgar Allan Poe s The Raven and the To Be Or Not To Be soliloquy from Shakespeare s Hamlet. It would be nice to prove that the great bard penned these himself and as their anonymous works, who knows he may well have done.
