The earth with all its appendages was likewise devoted to his use. But the ample control which was bestowed upon him over both organic and inorganic matter has never been found sufficient to satiate that unchastened lust of power, which frequently finds a lodgment in the human heart. And the perpetuated annals of our race, as well as continued observation, instructs us that individuals are found in every age, and in every clime and country, whose exertions are devoted, either openly or covertly, by force or by fraud, to obtain dominion also over their equals and fellow creatures. The struggle of the few to control the rights and to appropriate the toil of the many...
