Click on // Monty Python on novel writing Watching children grow is like threatening the ivy to climb the garden wall. You wait for it to happen, you hurry it along with love. But still you re disappointed at giving someone life enough to walk off on your own and not be carried in your arms. You never turn your back - not once, and yet one day they ve grown apart or taller. It s all the same. Polly put the kettle on, we ll all have tea. Giving love to children has made us older overnight. - Rod McKune DEDICATION Dedicated to my dear family. I love you in the very special way that I ve written about in these pages. # I don t know why the hell (oops, er, sorry) I am writing this story of my life; because probably nobody will believe it, but my friends (who are a motley collection of out of the ordinary crazy individuals, as opposed to my dear wife s rather straight-laced friends) have suggested that this account of my life could be a best seller. We shall see! Dream on, sonny boy ! * I am writing these first words on a Jumbo jet bound for New Zealand. and who knows what! I am a 39 year old male, who has been working in Cape Town as the Life Manager of a dynamic insurance brokerage, marking time to join my wife, Marie and twin sons, Gareth and Sean in New...
