Novels Alive Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 292 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Four years ago a tragedy made Jackson Weldon turn his back on life. He wanted nothing more than doing a gig with his guitar every now and then to put a sandwich on his plate and gas in his tank. But a few dates with Nan Miller several months ago had him finally wanting something more. Her in his bed. Only she walked before that happened and his hunger for her alone has grown until he cant think of anything but her. Nan has lived her life by a plan and she isnt about to mess it up by getting involved with a man going nowhere. Thats why she walked out on Jackson, seventy one days ago. Only, she cant get him out of her mind or escape him in her dreams, night or day. So when he comes riding in on his Harley again, she wonders if she should take him up on his offer for an uninhibited weekend. But their no strings ride leads them both to an end that changes everything they ever believed they wanted or deserved out of life. Excerpt: Lightning briefly illuminated the strong curve of his stubble-rough jaw, devilish smile, and ravens wing hair whipping in the wind. Damn, the man had no right to look so sexy in the middle of hell. He stripped off his black leather jacket, pushed her umbrella aside, and leaned in close. You bait a nice hook, sugar. You. You Peeping Tom! Her search for something sophisticated and deadly to say fizzled as ridiculous. Careful. Youre giving me ideas for a new profession. She didnt have a chance to reply before his leather jacket descended over her head and his strong arm...
